MAWSS Watercolor Contest Winners Announced

The winners of the 2015 MAWSS “Fun with Water” Watercolor Contest have been selected from more than 525 entries submitted by area students in grades K-12.

This year’s winners are:

Overall winner – Noelle Sherer, “Swimming Over the Jellyfish,” Dunbar Magnet School.

9th-12th Grade - Jordyn McLaney, “Curiosity,” Theodore High School.

6th-8th Grade - Alli Leslie, “Upside Down Summer,” Dunbar Magnet School.

3rd-5th Grade - Benjamin Cumpston, “The Water Slide,” Knollwood Christian School.

K-2nd Grade – Daltrey LeGros, “Pirate Ship,” Council Traditional School.

The annual watercolor contest sponsored by the Mobile Area Water and Sewer System (MAWSS) encourages area students to tap into their artistic side and depict the role that clean water plays in their daily lives.

The winners will be recognized at an awards ceremony on August 7 at Bel Air Mall. At that time, MAWSS officials will present all winners with gift certificates to Bel Air Mall. In addition, the grand-prize winner’s school also receives a gift certificate.
