

News Advisory

Release date: July 31, 2017

Contact: Barbara Shaw, Public Affairs Mgr., 251 694-3113 or bshaw@mawss.com

MAWSS Watercolor Contest Winners to Be Recognized

The awards ceremony for winners of the 2017 MAWSS “Fun with Water” Watercolor Contest will be held Friday, August 4, at 6:30 p.m. at The Shoppes at Bel Air. The ceremony will take place in the fountain area outside of JC Penney.

The annual watercolor contest, sponsored by the Mobile Area Water and Sewer System (MAWSS), encourages area students to draw from their creativity and illustrate the role that clean water plays in their daily lives.

This year’s winners are:

Overall winner—Lindsey Imsand, “A World Underwater,” Theodore High School;

9th-12th Grade—Jeremy Bankston, “Everything Is Coming Up Coral,” Theodore High School;

6th-8th Grade—Mia Bauer, “Underwater Adventure,” Dunbar Magnet School;

3rd-5th Grade—Jalyn Johnson, “Fun Summer Birthdays,” Council Traditional School;

K-2nd Grade—Corynne Swan, “A Beautiful Day at the Beach,” Old School Road School.

All winners receive gift cards to The Shoppes at Bel Air retailers. In addition, the grand prize winner’s school also receives a gift card.