

Mobile Area Water & Sewer System (MAWSS)
News Advisory

Release date: Oct. 2, 2012

Contact: Barbara Shaw, Public Affairs Mgr., 694-3113 or bshaw@mawss.com

Fisher Elected MAWSS Chair

Photo: Leevones G. Fisher

Leevones G. Fisher was elected Chair of the Board of Mobile Area Water and Sewer System (MAWSS) by fellow commissioners during the annual election of officers September 24. Others elected to leadership roles were Kimberly Williams-Pettway, Vice Chair and Sheri Weber, Secretary-Treasurer.

Fisher, is the founder, CEO and housing coordinator for the Bay Area Women's Coalition, Inc., and is a community activist for the Trinity Gardens area. A former resource teacher for the Mobile County School System, she holds a Masters of Education in Science and a Certification in Administration from the University of South Alabama citing more than 30 years of teaching experience spanning three states. She was appointed to the MAWSS Board on April 29, 2008 by District 1 City Council Representative Fred Richardson to a term ending April 28, 2014.