MAWSS Hosts Forestry Classes for Minority and Small Businesses

Mobile Area Water & Sewer System (MAWSS) in conjunction with the Alabama Department of Transportation and Tuskegee University will offer free courses during the month of February for minority and small business owners interested in landscaping and easement maintenance. All classes will take place between 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. at MAWSS Park Forest Plaza, 4725 Moffett Rd.

Urban Forestry is the care and management of tree populations in urban settings. This three part series will focus on the functional role of trees and their value in urban settings. Sessions will be held February 13, 20 and 27. All three sessions must be attended to obtain certification.

Electrical Hazards Awareness will explain the dangers of electricity when working in the tree care industry. The class will be offered February 25.
