MAWSS Releases Water at Big Creek Lake

As a result of heavy rainfall from Tropical Storm Isaac near the Alabama -Mississippi border Mobile Area Water & Sewer System (MAWSS) is releasing water from Big Creek Lake. The amount of water released is equivalent to what is being received in rainfall. The release is necessary to maintain the safety and security of the dam.

Emergency Management Agencies in both Mobile and Mississippi have been notified of the release in accordance with an established plan.
