MAWSS Welcomes Chapman to Board

Mobile Area Water and Sewer System (MAWSS) welcomes Charles E. Chapman as the newest member of the Board. Chapman's appointment was effective February 2 and will run through February 2022. He replaces James Bell as the District 4 representative. Bell served 12 years on the MAWSS Board.

Chapman is the owner and CEO of Chapman Development Corporation, a commercial real estate development and management firm. He also holds the distinction of being the first elected representative from District 4 on the Mobile City Council, winning the seat in 1985 and 1989. During those terms he also served as President of the Mobile City Council. He also served on the Mobile Airport Authority from 1986 until 1993. He has remained active serving as president of several youth sports organizations in Mobile including Trimmier Park, B.C. Rain High School and the Mobile Youth Football conference.
