Mobile Area Water and Sewer System (MAWSS) announced that Felicia Patterson has joined their staff as the new Underutilized Business Enterprise (UUBE) Program Coordinator. Patterson will focus on increasing opportunities for women and minority owned companies to do business with MAWSS.

Patterson has extensive experience in purchasing, vendor and contract development having worked with ExxonMobil, Outokumpu Stainless, Compass Group and G.A. West & Co., Inc. She holds a master's degree in Human Resource Management from Troy State University with undergraduate degrees from Faulkner State University.

The goal of the UUBE program is to provide equal access to every vendor that desires to do business with MAWSS including small and disadvantaged companies. For more information on MAWSS' UUBE program call 694-3194 or visit www.mawss.com.
